Important Tour Information:

The overall activity level of this tour is a level 2. This means you like a balanced approach to travel. Walking two to three miles over the course of a day is no problem for you. You can handle a variety of terrains, from cobblestone streets to moderate hills with relative ease and without assistance. You can climb two flights of stairs with ease. Expect some full days balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. You can handle altitudes up to 6,000 feet. While this level is appropriate for travelers that require mobility assistance devices, there could be times when you may have to sit out on some of the included activities.

Travel with a maximum of four groups of 44 travelers onboard this river cruise itinerary.

During the walking tours in Cologne and Strasbourg, expect to navigate cobblestone streets and uneven grounds covering a walking distance of around two miles (around 3.2 kilometers). You should also be prepared to stand for longer periods of time, up to three hours.

In Amsterdam and Strasbourg, be prepared for climbing in/out of a canal boat, which requires agility.

*In Cochem, the expected length of the walking tour is approximately 2.5 miles navigating through cobblestone streets on your way to Reichsburg Castle. To access the castle, there is a shuttle bus available to take you to the lower entrance, from where there's an entrance ramp to walk up. There are no elevators available.

*As there is no portage service at Zurich airport, you are required to handle your luggage from the terminal to the motorcoach on your arrival day. Departing Amsterdam airport, you'll be responsible for handling your own luggage from the motorcoach to the departure terminal. The walking distance between the drop-off and the terminal is approximately one quarter of a mile.

For more information visit <https://gateway.gocollette.com/link/1377975>

While this tour is appropriate for travelers that require some mobility assistance devices, river cruises cannot accommodate travelers on wheelchairs or with restricted mobility due to gangway access, mooring requirements, and lack of elevator accessibility to every deck of the ship.

If you require any special assistance while on tour, please make us aware at time of reservation so the necessary request form can be sent to your attention.

The driving distance from Zurich to Basel is 54 miles/87 kilometers and expected traveling time is 1.5 hours depending on traffic.

In Speyer and Strasbourg, depending on the docking position, the ship may not be docked within walking distance of the old city.

While the ship is the primary mode of transportation on this tour, some daily excursions may use coaches, depending on the docking position.

Winningen and Treis Karden are only used as a docking place for the Cochem visit.

Ports of call are subject to change based on pier availability and weather conditions.

This itinerary is subject to change due to unforeseen changes in water levels, delays at the locks, and other circumstances that may arise along the waterways. These changes may include items being missed during the tour; however, every effort will be made to substitute another attraction if possible.

Smart casual wear is recommended throughout the tour. For the welcome and farewell dinners, a dinner dress for ladies and jacket and tie for gentlemen are recommended. Comfortable walking shoes are recommended throughout the tour.

Coffee or tea is included with all meals. Wine, beer, and soda are included with each dinner onboard the ship.

The Van Gogh Museum and the Anne Frank House are the two most popular sites in Amsterdam. Tickets are in high demand and are difficult to obtain on the day or close to the day of visit. If you are interested, we recommend that you purchase tickets online in advance through the museums' official websites.

Cabins are available on Main (Ariane), Middle (Alexia), and Upper (Amalia) decks. River cruises are smaller ships and only have a limited number of each cabin category available. Specific categories are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Every effort will be made to accommodate your cabin choice at the time of reservation, however, if that cabin category is no longer available, the closest available category will be offered. Please inquire through our Client Care Center for any upgrade fees which will apply for different cabin categories. Upgrades are available from Lower to Stateroom, Deluxe Stateroom, and Suite. All cabin upgrades are available on the Amalia and Alexia Decks. The Ariane Deck is connected to the Alexia Deck by 12 steps, and there is no elevator access to this deck.
